

586 - IgM/IgG COVID 19 RAPID ANTIBODY TEST

The IgM antibody is the first antibody to be present in a current infection and may continue to be present for an extended period after the presence of the IgG antibody.

The IgG antibody usually develops within 10 to 14 days after the initial onset of infection.

1. Requisition: specimen will not be processed, if not completed in its entirety including:

Demographics

- a. full name
- b. date of birth
- c. complete address
- d. telephone number
- e. date

Questionnaire (provide yes or no – do not leave blank)

- a. temperature (F°)
- b. cough
- c. runny nose
- d. shortness of breath
- e. sore throat
- f. exercise within 24 hours
- g. use of Biotin
- h. gender (M, F, LGBTQIAPK)
- i. ethnicity
- j. race

2. Specimen requirements: 1 full red top tube (no SST)
3. Storage/Transportation of Specimen:
 - a. Arrival at lab within 48 hours: refrigeration: 2°- 8°C
 - b. Arrival at lab after 48 hours of collection: the serum must be separated, frozen and transported in a frozen state.
4. Results: All Results are presumptive and will contain a complete interpretation and follow up suggestion.

IF additional testing is indicated: Please Call the lab for instructions and supplies

5. Testing priority: any person

6. Fee: $52.00 – test fee
 $23.00 – draw fee- (due at time of collection)

Patients paying by Cash/Credit Card/Money Order must provide the name and address of a Physician, Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant's to receive the results when they are released to the patient. No physician script/requisition is needed.

7. Payment: XCL accepts Cash, Credit Card or Money Order

Insurances:

- a. Patient must submit a signed doctor's order/script
- b. Patient must submit credit card at time of collection. This credit card will be put on hold for any balances due if insurance does not pay for testing.
- c. Collection fee must be paid at time of collection- $23.00.
- d. XCL will attempt to bill your insurance*.
 If insurance does not reimburse, ADL will bill your credit card for the balance.
- e. XCL will accept the payment from insurance company as balance paid, unless there is a co/pay or deductible

We will bill your insurance provider, if the claim is denied you will be responsible for the test fee up to the amount of $75.*